Breaking Away From the Pack Audition Technique Workshop

Brian Levy CDC,CSA

Casting director Brian Levy is pleased to present his popular, informative and highly acclaimed audition technique workshop Breaking Away From the Pack. This workshop is a full and challenging day, that provides actors with real skills to use in audition. Participants will see casting from my side of the table, learn how to make choices in audition that get a performer noticed and of course lots of helpful advice that goes well beyond do's and don'ts. I teach performers how to become a smarter and better-informed actor who has the skill set to compete effectively in audition. Actors fail in audition too often for reasons that often have little to do with ability and everything to do with not understanding the audition process. I can help with that.

You spend time, effort and resources getting to your auditions. That effort should be rewarded with a more satisfying audition experience. This practical and informative workshop is beneficial to any actor struggling with the audition process. There are no medals for just showing up. Make your audition count!

Brian is a working casting director based in Toronto.
